

Emergency Bursary Application for Out of Province and International Students

Funds have been made available to provide emergency bursaries for unexpected financial hardship for both full-time and part-time Out of Province and International students. This is non-repayable funding and eligibility will depend on each applicant's unique situation. Maximum funding is $750 and is limited to once per academic year. Tuition fees for the semester must be paid in full in order to be eligible for this funding.
